This morning we will enjoy a panoramic tour of Athens before heading out to visit the iconic Acropolis and the Acropolis museum. After some time spent exploring the thousands of years of history here, we will meet with a local food expert this afternoon, to enjoy a walking tour of the central market of Athens. We indulge in small bites and local delicacies as we make our way across the market.

You will enjoy some free time in Athens for shopping and exploring your own interests.

We will spend some time exploring the towers and gardens here before enjoying local wine tasting, accompanied with cheeses and homemade Greek pies.
